

UIC Child & Family Development Center

Chicago Early Intervention Project

CHICAGO EARLY INTERVENTION PROJECT

Christine Salisbury, Ph.D.

Principal Investigator

The Chicago Early Intervention Project was funded to demonstrate the effectiveness of an intensive home-based, early intervention program for very young children with identified disabilities, who live in urban neighborhoods. Our project teaches urban parents, how to enhance their child's development within typical routines and activities.